

A Pioneer Perspective - Howard County

Celebrating 30 Years -- When the United Way of Howard County committed funds for a Community Foundation back in 1989, few could have foreseen the impact and reach that the resulting organization would have on our community.

The return on that $10,000 grant has been remarkable. The nascent foundation was formally incorporated two years later, and in 2021 the Community Foundation of Howard County Inc. reached two impressive milestones simultaneously: passing the $100-million asset mark in its 30th year in operation. A Pioneer Perspective - Clinton County

Celebrating 25 Years -- Since 1996, the Clinton County Community Foundation has established itself as a trusted organization providing valuable leadership in the community.

As an affiliate of the neighboring Community Foundation of Howard County Inc., almost from the start Clinton County's Foundation was able to position itself to continue a rich heritage of local philanthropy and to provide new opportunities for donors. Read more.
